

makes this perfectly apparent, even to the blindest. We have merely taken a change of attractions. Dancing began to pull, even before Ash Wednesday, since the season proved more than usually full of waltzes and the ever-popular two-step. Consequently we just switch round to musicalest. lectures, concerts and the like, and go so-ciably on in the same old way, wearing pretty frocks and pruning our feathers much or little, as said frocks become us or me has had an ardent and enthusiastic support this winter. Just pender on the audiences of last week, if you don't believe me And of the several weeks before that, when we had Schumann-Heink, Lilli Lehmon, and others too numerous to mention, all in the same seven days. When people go in large numbers to devour a Wagnerian menu; when they fill the pretty results buil of the Oleon, so that extra chairs must be hartily procured from the adjoining stu-dies, as happened at the Francis Rogers evenning; when they jam into the big audi-torium to hear a purely classic symphony concert, as on Thursday night; and, again, when they pack even the foyer of the Odeon, as during the last few nights of the Italian band engagement; then is the evidence conclusive, I think, that muste has bad a revival, if you like, or a steady growth, if you are an optimist.

And the accompanying interest in com-posers and their works; the intelligence dis-played on all-sides, must needs be most gratifying to those who dismally croaked stratifying 10 those who dismally croaked bean in Mediterranean waters since his term of service in the United States Navy, under Captain to less than eleven persons sey to lation.

Now, Sinding, as musicians are aware, is a composer by no means well known, except to the elect. Therefore, this layman interest is astonishing.

Louis mudeally. It takes no very imaginative prophet to tell that. And everything for the last two or three years has helped. The Castle Square Opera, the many excellent clubs. Union Musical, Rubinstein, Morning Choral and let me say just here that after last Tuesday night's concert thinking persons can no longer accuse this women as leaning more to the social than to the music side of things, and it must henceforth rank among the serious music organizations of the city-the splen-didly successful work done by the Cherai Symphony-these all contribute and all are Symptony—these all contribute and all are justly entitled to a share in the glories. The year 186 and the Fair will find us in as flourishing a condition of moste as the most eager could possibly demand or de-

The Belgian Minister, Baron Ludovic Moncheur, and his bride, who was Misse Charlotte Clayton, daughter of Powell Clay-ton, United States Ambassadot to Mexico, have completed their honeymoon journeying. and last week arrived at the Mexican Legation in Washington. The house formerly oc-cupied by the late Senator Davis and Mrs. tion in Washington. The capied by the late Senator Davis and Mrs. Davis hits been taken and handsomely furnished by Baron Moncheur, and society of the capital is prepared to entertain the bride the capital is prepared to entertain the bride and bridegroom extensively.

Recent intelligence from Miami, Fia., an-mounces that "slock goif" is the fad of the hour, A silver cup, handsomely embossed, was last week offered as a prize by Mr. Gile of Andover, Mass, and fifteen ladies entered the contest. Miss Gile won the first prize, Miss Street of Brooklyn the second, while Mrs. Byron Nugett made a seers of while Mrs. Byron Nugent made a score of 28, Miss Helen Noel 31 and Mrs. Henry M.

At the Francis Rogers song recital; Sweet young thing in pule gray, to her brother, in eyeglasses: "Ted, which one of the Rogers brothers is this?"

Miss Lucille Overstolz, who has not given town more than a modicum of her society for the last season and a half, has just returned from a visit of several months in the East. She spent some time with her cousins, the Espenschieds in Brooklyn, bringing Miss Espenschied home with her, and was also largely entertained in New York by her school friend Frank Fig. school friend, Ursula King, who is now mar-

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Daughaday took their departure a week ago for New Mexico, where they are guests at the Webster ranch, Mrs. Webster is their daughter, for-merly Miss Sophie Daughaday, A little later Miss Ella Daughaday will go down for a visit.

Miss Irene Catlin has returned home from a juint to New Orleans, during Mardi Gras, and appeared last Thursday night in the Catlin box at the Choral-Symphony, with two debutantes in her charge—her cousin.
Miss Eanily Catlin, who were plak silk mullinserted with Val lace, and a monstrous corsage cluster of California violets, and Miss Emily Wickham, who looked just the least bit pale in a pure white chiffen and silk

The dancing and general festivity of the winter has its wearying effect on every-body allke; and the Lenten cessation is gratefully received by those who were as much feted as Miss Wickham and her ser-of buds. John Shepley, George Tiffany and Dan Kirby added further justre to the box party, which departed after Gerardy had done his best. Across the aisle Mrs. Kilpatrick, in a smart chiffon gown of her favored color, pale gray, with some rare eld lace, had with her Mr. and Mrs. Ab shafficigh and Miss Louis Chauvenet, in black velvet and Mr. Miss Louis Chauvenet and Mr. Miss Louis Chauvenet and Mr. Will Chauvenet and Mr. Will Chauvenet were in their hox on the right. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamilton were in the fover during the intermission. Mr. and Mrs. Clint Whittemore, Mg. and Miss Stewart is a sister of William G. smart chiffon rown of her favored color, pale gray, with some rare old lace, had with her Mr. and Mrs. At Shapleigh and

Lent has made no appreciable difference of the lion of this party, but did not put in our social diversion. Last week's round in an appearance until the convert was well in an appearance until the convert was well index with perfectly appearance to the index with the convert was a guest in Gendal Shields's box. Miss Webb was a guest in Gendal Shields's box. Miss Webb wore pink assistants includes: a little dinner first at the Planters, with only a few men whom he knew as guests. The Francis box looked very lively and boasted of more men than any similar enclosure in the house. Mrs. Francis sat enclosure in the house. Mrs. Frances sat in front, with a daughter-in-law on each side. Mrs. David Jr., wearing a pale pink and eeru effect, with the smartest, oddest black velvet bow directly in front of the corsage. It was shaped exactly like a Greek cross, three stiff loops at top and sides, while the lower loop lengthened and divided into a fringe, hanging well down on the skirt. Very effective for bodices to be worn in theater and opera

Mrs. Perry Francis, who finds sale blue to her frequent liking, were silk of this tint, relieved with lace, and a big blue aigrette brought well toward the front of tered the box after the Sinding symphony; and Robert Brookings and Mr. and Mrs.

Winston Churchill and Mrs. Churchill, with their daughters, are wintering in Rome and went last week to Florence for a fortnight's stay. American society this Italian region is wondering if this lengthy visit of Mr. Churchill may be taken as an indication that his next novel time pressed and the concert was in a fair way to begin:

"Hurry, or we'll miss that first Sinding the Windy City, and related to the Colonel number; and I've come especially to hear Blodgett family in St. Louis, arrived on Friday for a visit with Blodgett and Mrs. Fred Lehmann. two young girls, who are just out this sea-son, will be entertained by the Dobb's Fer-Amy Holland, Miss Catlin and Miss Wick-ham.

> Lientenant-Governor Lee's daughters Miss Lee and Miss Minnle Lee, did not return from Louisville with Mr. and Mrs. Lee, but gone for more extensive travelling friends, among them Miss Hatch, who is a daughter of Judge Hatch of the Supreme a daughter of Judge Haten of the Supreme Court and a cousin of Secretary Root, and proceeded to Cuba, where the young ladies are being royally entertained. Miss Lee will not reach St. Louis until the middle of March, spending a week with Eastern friends after landing. Miss Minnie Lee is Junketing in Virginia, and will stay in Richmond until her sister returns with her, SERENA LAMB.

AT THE THEATERS.

A party of young hadies, chaperoned by Mrs. Roberts, gave a balcony party at the Century on Friday night. The party con-sisted of:

Myrtle Blaney. Annu Siegel, Teresa McGinley, Mation Blives, Anna Pink, Nettle Smith, Lillie Stoye.

A box party was given on Monday even-ing by Messis. Frank and Gustavus Von Brecht to see Rogers Brothers at the Olympic. The party included: Miss Wil-helmina Busch, Miss Alma Holm, Miss Albe Luedeking, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Faust and Doctor Elbrecht. After the perform-ance the party supped at Faust's.

The Choral-Symphony audience last Thursday night was large, and, as usual, thoroughly fashionable in its ensemble.

Miss Ella Daughaday, in pale gray cloth and white fur, came with Mr. Buschodde.

Airs W. H. Homer and her sister, Mrs. Hughes, came together.

Mrs. Albert D. Chappell, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Herman Clark and Miss Clara Clark were among the ladies in the audience.

Mr. and Mrs. Raiston were in their usual seats.

Miss Grace Dodd and Miss Ruth Dodd were in their box.

General and Mrs. George H. Shields were early in the foyer. Mrs. Shields, who is just back from Washington and the D. A. R. Congress, received many congratulations on her recent appointment.

Miss Martha Sproule came with Mrs.

Sproule.

Mrs. Emma Copelin, Mrs. Harold Tit-mann and Miss Foster came together. Miss Ida B. McLagan was with a party Miss Idn B. McLagan was with of ladies.
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Romer were in parquet seats, with Miss Frieda von der Lippe and Mr. Kohler.
Mrs. Franklin D. Ridgeley came with Mr. and Mrs. Alan Simpkins.
Miss Lucy Hutchinson was with friends.
Doctor and Mrs. Julius Ethardt and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Ehling were parquet neighbors.

Dottor Leon Harrison brought guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris B. Gregg. Doctor and Mrs. Shoemaker and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hawley were together.

Mr. and Mrs. McKittrick Jones were in their box.

Miss Edna Fischel came with friends, and Mrs and Mrs. I. W. Lionberger, and Mrs. Lionberger, were in their box, with Robert Brookings.

Mrs. Howard Eiliott and Mrs. Julia January were in the Elliott box.

Mrs. Howard Elliott ani Mrs. Julia January were in the Elliott box.
Mrs. Otto Boliman brought several ladies,
Theodore Link came with friends,
Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Semple, Miss Mary
Semple and Fred Semple were in their box.
Mr. and Mrs. Lilburn G. McNair came with friends, Mrs. McNair wore cream etamine, covered with a black velvet coat and Irish point lace collar.
Judge and Mrs. Boyle filled their box with friends,
Miss Taussig and Miss Agnes Taussig
were together.

ere together. Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Swartz were with friends.

Doctor Saxyl brought Miss Alma Stix.

Mrs. Louis Chauvenet, in black velvet and white lace; Mr. Chauvenet and Mr.

Will Chauvenet were in their box on the

the state of the state of

Mrs. Oscar Herf were in the Haarstick box.

Miss Mamie Webb was a guest in General Shields's box. Miss Webb wore pink and black.

W. Tudor Wilkinson, Albert C. Wegman, Franklin P. Seltzer, Francis Rogers and Mrs. Lilian Apel Emery participated in a dinner party given to Mrs. Rogers at the Planters, and did not arrive untu late.

Others in the audience were; Mrs. H. C. Ives, Mrs. Charles Claffin Allen, Miss Grace Taussig, Mr. and Mrs. Pommer, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Vietns, Mr. and Mrs. Robert, Atkinson, Guy Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Robert, Atkinson, Guy Clark, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Cochran, William Schuyler, Miss Mabel Ross and Mrs. Updike.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

The Morning Etude will meet at the residence of Miss Mabel Degre, No. 1564 Chamberlain avenue on Friday, February 28, at 10 colors. 10 o'clock.

The Ten O'clock Musical will meet at the home of Mrs. Pobyne, No. 365 Cabanna avenue, Wednesday, February 28, at 10 a. m.

the holm of Mrs. Polygne, Mc. Mys. t admins of the literary Symposium met as usual Wednesday morning at Hotel Beers. But Instead of the regular programme, the meeting resolved liself into one of social enjoyment and congratulation. The ladies concluded that Oliver Wendell Holmes was right in commending a mutual admiration of the success of the benefit tendered to Mrs. William B. Anderson then told of the success of the benefit tendered to Mrs. William B. Anderson then told of the success of the benefit tendered to Mrs. Marth Davis Griffith, leader of the symposium, and proposed a vote of thanks to Mrs. Dan C. Nugent for their lith. Mrs. T. S. Casey then thanked Mrs. Mrs. L. L. Levey General Cordonano Mr. W. Varien Sage Major Rosea Mr. W. L. L. Levey General Cordonano Mr. Frederic S. Geodwin Marguerite Pratt for her beautiful plano selections. Then proposed a vising wors of the club, making its pembers welcome and the comfortable at all times, to which the ladies responded heartily.

The Marth Potrovacul (the Blacksmith) Mrs. Morrill Sage Joan Grozavul (the Bucksmith) Mrs. Morrill Sage Joan Grozavul (the Bucksmith) Mrs. Morrill Sage Joan Grozavul (the Curly Head) Mr. Whitefield Sammés Vintila Logofettu (the Original Mrs. Morrill Sage Joan Grozavul (the Curly Mr. Whitefield Sammés Vintila Logofettu (the Original Mr. Morrill Sage Joan Grozav

The engagement of Miss Alice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Randow, No. 1617 Von Versen avenue, to Mr. D. J. Campbell, is announced. It will be an Easter wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Rosenthal, No. 4946 Cook avenue, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Jenple, to Mr. Charles Levy of Nashville, Tenn.

Mrz. Oscar C. Lauver of No. 5715 Clemens avenue, announces the engagement of her daughter, Elizabeth, to Doctor M. George Jr. The wedding will take place early if the Summer.

Miss Willette Kershan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kershan, of Clifton Heights, was married last Wednesday afternoon by the Reverend F. T. Eddy, at Hallfax, Nova Scotia, to Mr. Albert J. Mor.

MISCELLANEOUS FUNCTIONS.

"Easter in Roumania" was the title of a unique entertainment given last Thursday evening in New York by Mr. and Mrs. Frederic S. Goodwin, who live at No. 467 Central Park, West, and who are well remembered in St. Louis, where Mrs. Goodwin, was formerly Miss Minnie Newington. a daughter of Doctor Henry Newington. Booklets, decorated in water-colors, were sent out as invitations a fortnight ago, and served as a happy introduction to the evening. These were done in rough white paper, the covers attractively decorated with sketches of Roumanian peasants, and the Roumanian insignia. Within was the invitation proper, worded first in Roumanian dialect and again in English.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic S. Goodwin cordially invite you to an entertainment entitled Easter in Roumania."

illustrating the customs and life of the peasants of that country.
Thursday, February 28, 1902, at half after eight o'clock.

R. S. V. P. N. O. W.
On the next page was the programme, as "Baster in Roumania" was the title of a

R. S. V.
On the next page was too
follows:

1. Church scene on Easter eve.
Announcement of the Resurrection by the priest,
Domnut C. Mihatlesco.

2. The selzing of the bride elect,
3. Wedding ceremonial.
4. Wedding carry at the bride's house.
5. Horz (national dance).
6. Roumanian song, Mme. Ohrstrom Renard.
6. Ganies.
6. Commandan Song, Mme. Ohrstrom Renard.
6. Ganies.
6. Commandan Song, Mme. Ohrstrom Renard.
6. Ganies. Serba.
 Gypay with his trained bear. Domnil Mi-haliesco and Avram.
 Songs Master H. Simovitch.
 Solo dances. Domnil Flores. Mihaliesco and Kindia, by Elena, Petra and Jean. Roumanian national anthem.

Florica, bride (Peasant Women.)
Florica, bride's grandmoder.
Miss Alice Hancock
Riogdana, bride's grandmoder.
Miss Isabelle Hannam
Mitza Mrs. George H. Pepper
Viorien Mrs. Frederic Ranken
Staaranda Miss George Penfeid
Riodn Miss George Penfeid
Riodn Miss George Penfeid
Riodn Miss Gabrielle Stewart
Vidra Miss Mary Stewart
Zeltza Miss Henriette Schlepe
Fearika Miss Olin Warner
Riche Miss Augusta Ironalde
Riche Miss Augusta Ironalde
Riche Miss Beade Goodwin
Ariettan Miss Beade Goodwin
Martiora Miss Control Renard
Rioxandra Miss Christom Renard

Petru Dogarni cite Cooper, bridegroom.

Petru Dogarni cite Cooper, bridegroom.

Mr. George H. Pepper
Viad Tepes cite Spear), godfather.

Mr. John Goodwin

many of the costumes worn were direct Important Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

At the last meeting of the Twentieth Century Art Club the subjects presented were "Florence, Mother of Italian Art"; "Giotto, Painter and Architect," and "Fra Angelico, Artist and Monk." The papers were taken by Mines McParland and Johnson and Miss Buschmann. The next meeting will be in the clubrooms in the Y. M. C. A. building, on Monday, February 24.

Chart Club drawing-rooms will be held Tuesday, February 25. at 11 a. m. by Mrs. J. G. Keily, No. 4422 West Pine street; Wednesday, February 25. at 11 a. m. by Mrs. Thousand, February 25. at 11 a. m. by Mrs. Thursday, February 25. at 12 a. m., by Mrs. Thursday, February 25. at 2 m., by Mr

MANCARI. Pastrama Placinta cu carne. Placinta cu branza. Mamaliga cu branza. Floricele. PRAJITURI.

Nougat.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin were most ably assisted in carrying out the idea of this artistic evening by Mr. George Zolnay of New York, whose knowledge of Roumania and its people is very extensive.

Calling cards-Mermod & Jaccard's,

Calling cards—Mermon & Jaccard S.

A party of prominent young South Side folks gave a skating party on the Mississippl River, opposite the foot of Osage street. Monday night. The affair was given in honor of Miss Margaret Walker and her brother, Robert, of St. Paul, Minn., where both are well known in society and skating circles. The young folks spent a pleasant four hours in this pastime. Luncheon was served at a farmhouse on Arsenal Island, after which the party returned to the city, escorted by the band, which furnished music for the evening.

The skaters were:

Louisa Thompson. Marie Peters Adelaide Koenig, Uella Lang, Margaret Walker, Dorothy Hellbring, Helen Dunk, Robert Walker. Theo. Eggers.

Fred. Hardy.
Dwight Babcock,
Harry Schmit.
Thos. Williams,
Jos. Lovell.
Fred. Hillibing. Dr. Jos. Rauer, R. F. Gardner, E. C. Koenig, Adolph Graff, LeRoy Spencer, Phil. Muefimann,

Kalser, Kriter,

Mrs. Eleanor Drew entertained at her nome in North St. Louis during the past week. Dainty refreshments called "a Min-tesota hand-out," were served. The guests Woas, Shearon, Colick,

Miss Alice Ellison of Cabanne gave

Hahn,

Last evening Doctor Luiah Pafflow entertained the graduating class of the American Medical College at the home of her friends, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Kremer, No. 2139 California avenue. An elaborate course dinner was served at 7 o'clock, the diningroom and table being decorated with the college colors, red, white and blue, and red and white carnations.

Doctor G. O. Hullch was toastmaster, responses being given by Doctors Weissner and Casty. After dinner the guests played a progressive medley, prizes being awarded the winners. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Kremer.

Misses—

Cora Beck of Margaret DanduHelen O'Nell.

Doctors—
Lulah Pafflow of E. H. Casey.

Mrs. Weigle of Shawmut place gave a tea in honor of Mrs. Charles Brown on February 19. Gmaes and amusements, followed by dainty refreshments, were enjoyed by all, Those present were:

Merdames—
Brown, Weigle, Wones, Shearon, Cowles,

Misses—
Lillie Weigle, Ione Weigle. (Peasant Women.)
Miss Alice Hancock

Mrs. Et A. Sprague gave a euchre at her residence, No. 4833 Maffitt avenue, Thursday afternoon. The rooms were tastefully decorated with carnations and smilax. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. F. Mathias, Mr. Baker and Mrs. Tohle. Among the guests present were;
Mesdames—

Mesdame

Marin Potyovarni (the Blacksmith)

On Thurday afternoon a cuchre was given by Mrs. Louis Ruente, assisted by her sister. Mise Estelle Evans. Mrs. Buente's home was decorated in carnations and smilax. The successful winners of the three prizes were Mrs. Fred Conway, Mrs. Fred Crabb and Mrs. Frank Rapp. Among those present were: Miss Margaret Cooper of Poliock, La.; Miss M. Hardy of Cnicago, Miss Rose Hoeike, Mrs. Charles Weigand, Mrs. Ernest Hauck, Mrs. D. Dallas Denton, Mrs. Frank Rapp, Mrs. Fred Conway, Mrs. William Mollett, Mrs. Fred Crabb. Mrs. Mae Sherrey-Hagebush will give a matinee recital at the Odeon Recital Hall on Saturday, March 1, in honor of Miss Frieda von der Lippe, who leaves for Europe on March 4, to be absent three years. Miss von der Lippe, who is a planiste of ability, will play numbers by Mendelssohn. Chaminade and Schumann. Mrs. Ida Fitzhugh-Shephard will sing two songs.

Mrs. Charles Ballman entertained on Tuesday afternoon in honor of her birthday at her home in Ferguson, Mo. The afternoon was spent in music and informal merrymaking, interrupted by an elaborate luncheon. Those participating in the affair were: Mr. and Mrs. Val Ost of Baldwin street entertained last week, celebrating their first anniversary. Among those present

Turie dulce.

Prajituti cu Smattana.

COFETURI.
(Confections.)

Sussn.

BENTURI.
(Heverages.)

Vin Rosu.

Cafea Turceasa.

were:

Mesdames

Frank Flotron,
Messieurs and Mesdames
Louis W. Hickman,
Misses

Melba Hickman,
Neile Flotron,
Zora Flotron,
Bessie Hickman,
Messieurs

Messieurs

Messieurs

Messieurs

Miss Tillie and Miss Hattle Virtried, as-sisted by their sister, Mrs. Charles Fritz, entertained at cuchre on Saturday after-noon. Prizes were won by the Misses Rost, Lasher and Duernbeck. Among the ladies present were:

Ross, Kaub, Schade, Lindenkohl, De Werthern, Wittemann, Klemm E. C. Braun.

luncheon in honor of Miss Miller, who is visiting Miss Ella Schureman. Covers were laid for eleven.
Those present being:
Misses—
Miller, Mildred Rohrer, Schureman, Grace Rohrer, Young, Tills Smith, Owen.
Mesdames—
Brooks Critchfield

Miss Cathrine Weldon, No. 622: Plymouth avenue, gave a "George Washington party" last night. The room was decorated in honor of the Father of Our Country. Special speaking by several of the gentlemen and singing and dancing were the main features of the evening.

Those present were:

Misses
Stelle, Maginn*, 1
Gehls, Belding.

A surprise party was given Mrs. J. S. Divers of the South Side last week. Euchre was played, after which a luncheon was served.

Miss Elfrieda Kerner, No. 239 South Eighteenth street, gave a cuchre party Thursday evening in honor of her birth-day. After supper was served, the re-mainder of the evening was spent in mu-sic and dancing. Among those present

P. Sheriaden, P. G. Anton,

Misses-Lillian Hart-

mann. Clara Galfron.

Miller.
Rausch,
Kanfeld,
Jul. Kerner,
Guels,
Hahn,

Joctors—
Lulah Pafflow of
Washington, D. C.,
Maud Cormack,
Ida F. Kittridge,
Sophia Billenkamp,

G. O. Hulich. R. S. Wishart. E. A. Caulfield,

Critchfield.

Turner.

Gentry, Geo. W. Jenkins,

Hattle Fisher.

Olga Koenig.

Emile Kanfeld.

Amv Bergmann.

Nellie Widmann.

Laura Kerner.

Elfrieda Kerner,

Jeffries. Owen. Faber. O. Kerner.

E. H. Casey.
B. J. Weissnen,
J. B. McCann,
D. S. Pruitt,
C. D. Short,
T. E. Jeffries,
H. Bradbrook,

A donkey party was given on Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Leonard, No. 1431 Belt avenue, the occasion being Miss Eleanor Hirt's birth-

Miss Mata Grimm and her sister, Mrs. A. E. Wolf, entertained their friends with a euchre. The dining-room was decorated in pink and white.

Charlie Hickman, E. J. Hickman, Oliver Nelhaus, Carl Hoen.

M. Craden,

Laura Camenzind, Mamie Kircher, Juliet Klingier, Anna Klingier.

G. Knickemeyer, H. Dickman, H. A. Kinke, A. Bremser, G. Thompson,

Judge Sanborn and Mrs. Sanborn of the Grand Avenue Hotel entertained friends at dinner Friday evening.

Miss Marie Hegler, assisted by Miss Howard, Miss Hillman and Mr. Fallert gave a musical on Friday evening in the Odeon.

Mr. Adolph Klingler, Jr., of No. 1903 Union boulevard, was given a surprise par-ty on Monday evening by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Klingler, Sr., of No. 2954 Union boulevard. Those present were: Messieurs and Mesdames— M. Kircher, J. Schurk, V. Camenzind.

The pupils of room No. 1 at St. Rose's School gave a Washington's Birthday entertainment Friday afternoon in the school hall to the pastor, the Reverend J. J. Mc-Glynn, the teachers of the school and fellow-pupils. The programme consisted of

Clara E. Mohrman,

Bertha Mohrman, Ella Dehmer. M. Camenzind,

Mrs. Bass of Forest Park boulevard en-tertained friends by giving a cuchre last week. Among those present were: Mesdames— Coleman, Van Raalte, Kendal, Helman,

Eugene Flotron, Ferd Flotron, J'm Flotron, Dave Flotron,

Our New Quarters...

Second Floor, Carleton Building.

Northeast Corner Sixth and Olive Streets.

Ready-to-Wear Garments

For all occasions, also Dress Materials, Laces, Garnitures and Parisian Novelties.

Hetzel Importing Co.,

"Forsythe Shirt Waists" of New York.

REGINA Music Box

The perfection of self-playing musicthe most tuneful of all music boxes. 34 Changeable tune disks costing the same as sheet music, thousands of tunes to select from. Fully guaranteed and sold on easy payments.

Western

BOLLMAN BROS. CO., 1100 OLIVE STREET.

music and literary selections and essays on subjects appropriate to the occasion. Solos were sung by the Misses Sydnor, Peterson. McDonald and Mary Mulligan. A sketch of Washington's life was read by Miss N. Reilly, and the chorus, composed of the seniors, prominent among whom was Miss Eileen Downey, rendered several selections.

Elieen Downey, rendered several selections.

An event of the week was a birthday party given by Mr. and Mrs. Swint at their home. No. 5821 North Broadway, Wednesday evening, in honor of the eighteenth birthday of Miss Pearl Hogan. The evening was spent playing games and dancing. Prizes were won by Misses Tillie Schuster and Della Hogan, Messers. Charles Murphy and Henry Wilkes. Miss Pearl Hogan received the guest prize.

Among those present were:

Messeurs and Mesdames.

C. Taylor.

Misses.

Tillie Schustet,
Della Hogan.
Carrie Cohlman,
Emma Gouy,
Messeurs—
Charles Murphy,
Henry Wilkes,

Eagene Smith,
Maxie.

Cone of the enjoyable events of the week

On Wednesday last a surprise party was given to Miss Gussie Meckfessel at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Meckfessel, No. 1516 Montgomery street, hr honor of her twenty-fifth birthday.

Miss Minnie Meckfessel had charge of the table, with the assistance of Mr. Harry Normann, as toastmaster. Among the guests were the following cousins and friends: Misses Minnie L. Meckfessel, Minnie H. Meckfessel, Emille Meckfessel, Annie Meckfessel, Emma Meckfessel, Gustle Meckfessel, Frances Meckfessel, Henrietta Meckfessel, Clementine Beyert, Minnie Lochmann, Emma Hampe. One of the enjoyable events of the week One of the enjoyable events of the week was a birthday party given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Edward O'Brien, the occasion being the sixteenth birthday of their daughter Loretto. Vocal and musical selections were rendered by Misses Minnie Lancken. Katheryn and Minnie Duckworth, Blanche Way and Loretta O'Brien and Messis. T. K. Scott and F. Wissman.

The guests included:

M. Brown, E. Burle, E. O'Brien, Fammelman. E. Schlueter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Arens of Castleman avenue celebrated their silver wedding on Friday evening February 2l. A unique feature of this apniversary was that both bridesmaid and groomsman of twenty-five years ago were present. The house was decorated with palms and cut flowers. Among the guests were:

Mesers, and Mesdames—
H. Michel.
F. Niehaus, Mrs. C. A. Lernen, J. Arndt.
F. tt. Sugen, of Jef- Mrs. J. Voljsin, of

H. Michel.
F. Niehaus,
J. Arndt,
J. Asuden. of Jefferson City, Mo.

Mrs. C. A. Lernen,
of Collinsville, Ill.
for J. Volsin, of
ferson City, Mo.

Collinsville, Ill.

Dora Miller, Laura Wolfe, Jim Horn, Waldo D. Arens,

Mrs. Joseph Kaltenbuch, No. 2225A Barrett street, entertained on Monday afternoon in honor of her birthday. A "Peanut Contest" afforded the fun of the afternoon, and Mrs. Heyer was awarded the first prize, Mrs. Wm. Heger the second, and Mrz. Aug. Kaltmeyer the third. Miss Alma Dreifus, who has recently returned from Europe, played seyeral vocal zelections and Miss L. Kalterbeck, played several selections from

Kalterbach played several selections from Chopin and Liszt. Among those present W. Heger, Lambrecht, Acton, H. Horstbrink, F. Schick, A. Dreifus, A. Kaltmeyer,

Misses—
Clara Schick, Leontine KaltenAlma Dreifus, bach,
Mrs. Charles H. Smith, No. 4257 Finney avenue, gave a children's party on Monday, February 17, in honor of the seventh birthday of Delia and Robert Smith.

Mrs. Bryant of Texas avenue gave a party in honor of her daughter's, Miss Lillian Allen, sixteenth birthday. The house was decorated in carnations. American beauties and smilax. The musicians were screened by palms. Those present were; Misses-Mrs. H. I. Webber, No. 1319 Monroe street, celebrated her birthday with a euchre on Monday, February I7. The prizes were won by Mrs. Ed Meyer, Mrs. Lovendale, Mrs. McCready, Mrs. Regell and the consolation by Mrs. Werremeyer, Among those present were:

Mesdames—
M. Berry, M. L. Webber, McCready, Meyer, Lovendale, Werremeyer, Lovendale, Werremeyer, Hart, Regell, Heinritz, Misses—

Grace Poppert, Amy Pachall, Nellie Dalton of Lillie Fredricke, Julia Blanken-Ferguson. Letitia Tiffen. Alberta Rhodes, Flo Spyder, Lelo Jones, Emily Spencer, Elsie Heyer, Flo Snyder, Jessie Chart, Nellie Wiselegel, Maude Weisert, Tillie Fritz, Mamie Seibel, Ida Weisert, Mabel Allen. Pauline Herget, Alice Seaman. Leontine Kaltan-E. Blankenmeister,
C. P. Wharton,
C. Snyder,
F. Balsman,
F. Wiselogel,
G. Powell,
C. Weisert,
W. Fritz,
F. Selbel,
A. Weisert,
L. Powell,
S. Garvin, . McCne. . Walsh. . Case. . Fredricks. oehm.

PARTIES.

Boehm.
W. Wernsey.
W. Lohman.
A. S. Rhodes,
J. Doane.
L. Zeile,

Doctor Menge of Pendleton avenue gave a solree Friday evening. After an inter-esting hour or two with popular games, a ten-course supper was served. Among those present were: Doctor and Mrs. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. George C. R. Wagoner.

G. Blanchard, George St. John Doctor Hughes. SOCIAL CLUBS.

Mrs. Doctor Eckert, No. 428 Delmar boulevard, entertained her euchre Friday night. Prizes were won by Messra, Walden,

Ed Garvey, Eckert, Jourdan, Anderson,

Chris Garvey, William Warner, Samuel Keifer, Otto Orvis, Harry Meyer, Gatewood, The Superior Club gave its first dance on Wednesday. Among those present were: Misses-

May Doran, Leola McClain Sara Cunningham, Della Barry, Mary Cunningham, Mary Cunninghan Susle Bland, Mattle Ketchum, Mattie Ket Messieurs--Craigmier, Mathews, Phelps, O'Nell, Lamb, Black, Bland,

Agnes Barry, Ida Phelps, Agnes Barry, Tillie McCormack, Nellie Hart. McCruden, Barry, Walters, Frankel, Webers, Mullen,

Man McCue

With a cast made up from its membership the Columbian Club will on March 8 present "Popping the Question," a comedy from the pen of John Baldwin Buckstone. Those participating in the production are Miss May Goldman, Miss Rosalind Mahler. Miss Gertrude Russack, Miss Deisy Bauman, Mr. Samuel Sommers and Mr. Claire Lieben,

Miss Sophia Bocddeker of No. 763 Chou-teau avenue entertained the L. E. G. Club on Saturday. The afterneon was spent in embroidering, after which a luncheon was served. Among those present were: Misses-

Mary Cody,

The Apaches' monthly dancing party will be given at Mahler's next Thursday evening. Dancing from 8:30 to 12. An event of the past week was the mask hall given by the young ladies of the "O. D. O." Club at the home of Miss Emma Shulte, at which fifty young couples were present. The guests were their masques

It is Absolutely Impossible

To give any one anything in the way of a satisfactory understanding of the wonderful capabilities of

THE PIANOLA

-simply thro' an advertisement.

THREE THINGS NECESSARY-

ist. It must be seen - to ed. You must investigate, the wonderful results that can be arrived at thro' its aid. rd and most important-YOU MUST TRY IT YOURSELF.

Volumes can be written but nothing can impart the real meaning to YOU and YOURS of this delightful little instrument.

REMEMBER-The Pianola is an instrument

by means of which any one can play the piano. This means YOU.

PROVE OUR Call at our STATEMENTS warerooms, favorite composition, and if unwilling to play same yourself, we furnish demonstrators. Even the' you do not place an order for a Pianola. you will find your time pleasantly as well as profitably spent.

BOLLMAN BROS. CO. 1100 OLIVE ST.

and have explained to you,